Gilman KC's Pork Chop Bingo

The Gilman KC's will be having their annual Pork Chop Bingo on Sunday, February 11th starting at 1pm in the Sts. Peter and Paul Church basement in Gilman. Mark your calendars!! All proceeds will be going for updates at St. John's Area School!

Cookie Bake Totals

Our Cookie Bake totals are in, this fundraiser brought in $10,751.32! It is an increase of $562.59 from last year! Amazing work everyone! Thank you for your help to make this a successful Cookie Bake year!

Advent Toy Contest

Seven students entered homemade toys for the Advent Toy Contest this year. Two of our students won 1st and 3rd place, a total of $350 for the school. Emma Beckworth, gr. 5, won 1st place with a three story doll house made out of shoe boxes and recycled items. Talen Pietrzak, Gr. 5, won 3rd place with a Plinko game made out of wood, nails, and washers. Congratulations 5th graders!

Vocations

Today we had a visitor, Sr. Ann Magdalene, Eric Novak's niece, from the Sisters of Mary Morning Star religious order. Sr. Ann Magdalene spoke about vocations, her journey to becoming a sister and her love for Jesus. The children had many questions for her, and found out her favorite sport is tennis, her favorite foods are dark chocolate and tacos, and her favorite thing to do is spend time praying to Jesus.

Nat'l Law Enforcement Appreciation Day

We had 8 law enforcement personnel from The Foley Police Department and the Benton County Sheriff's Department at SJAS on Tuesday. They came and served lunch, ate lunch with the children and visited/played with the children on the playground. The students made cards for the officers, prayed over them, and gave them lots of treats to show our appreciation and support for all they do for us!
